BRADLEY BARNOLDBY LOOP

This is a great walk to get out and discover the countryside right on your doorstep. The walk starts in the picturesque Bradley Woods, easily accessible off Bradley Road. There is ample car parking at the start.

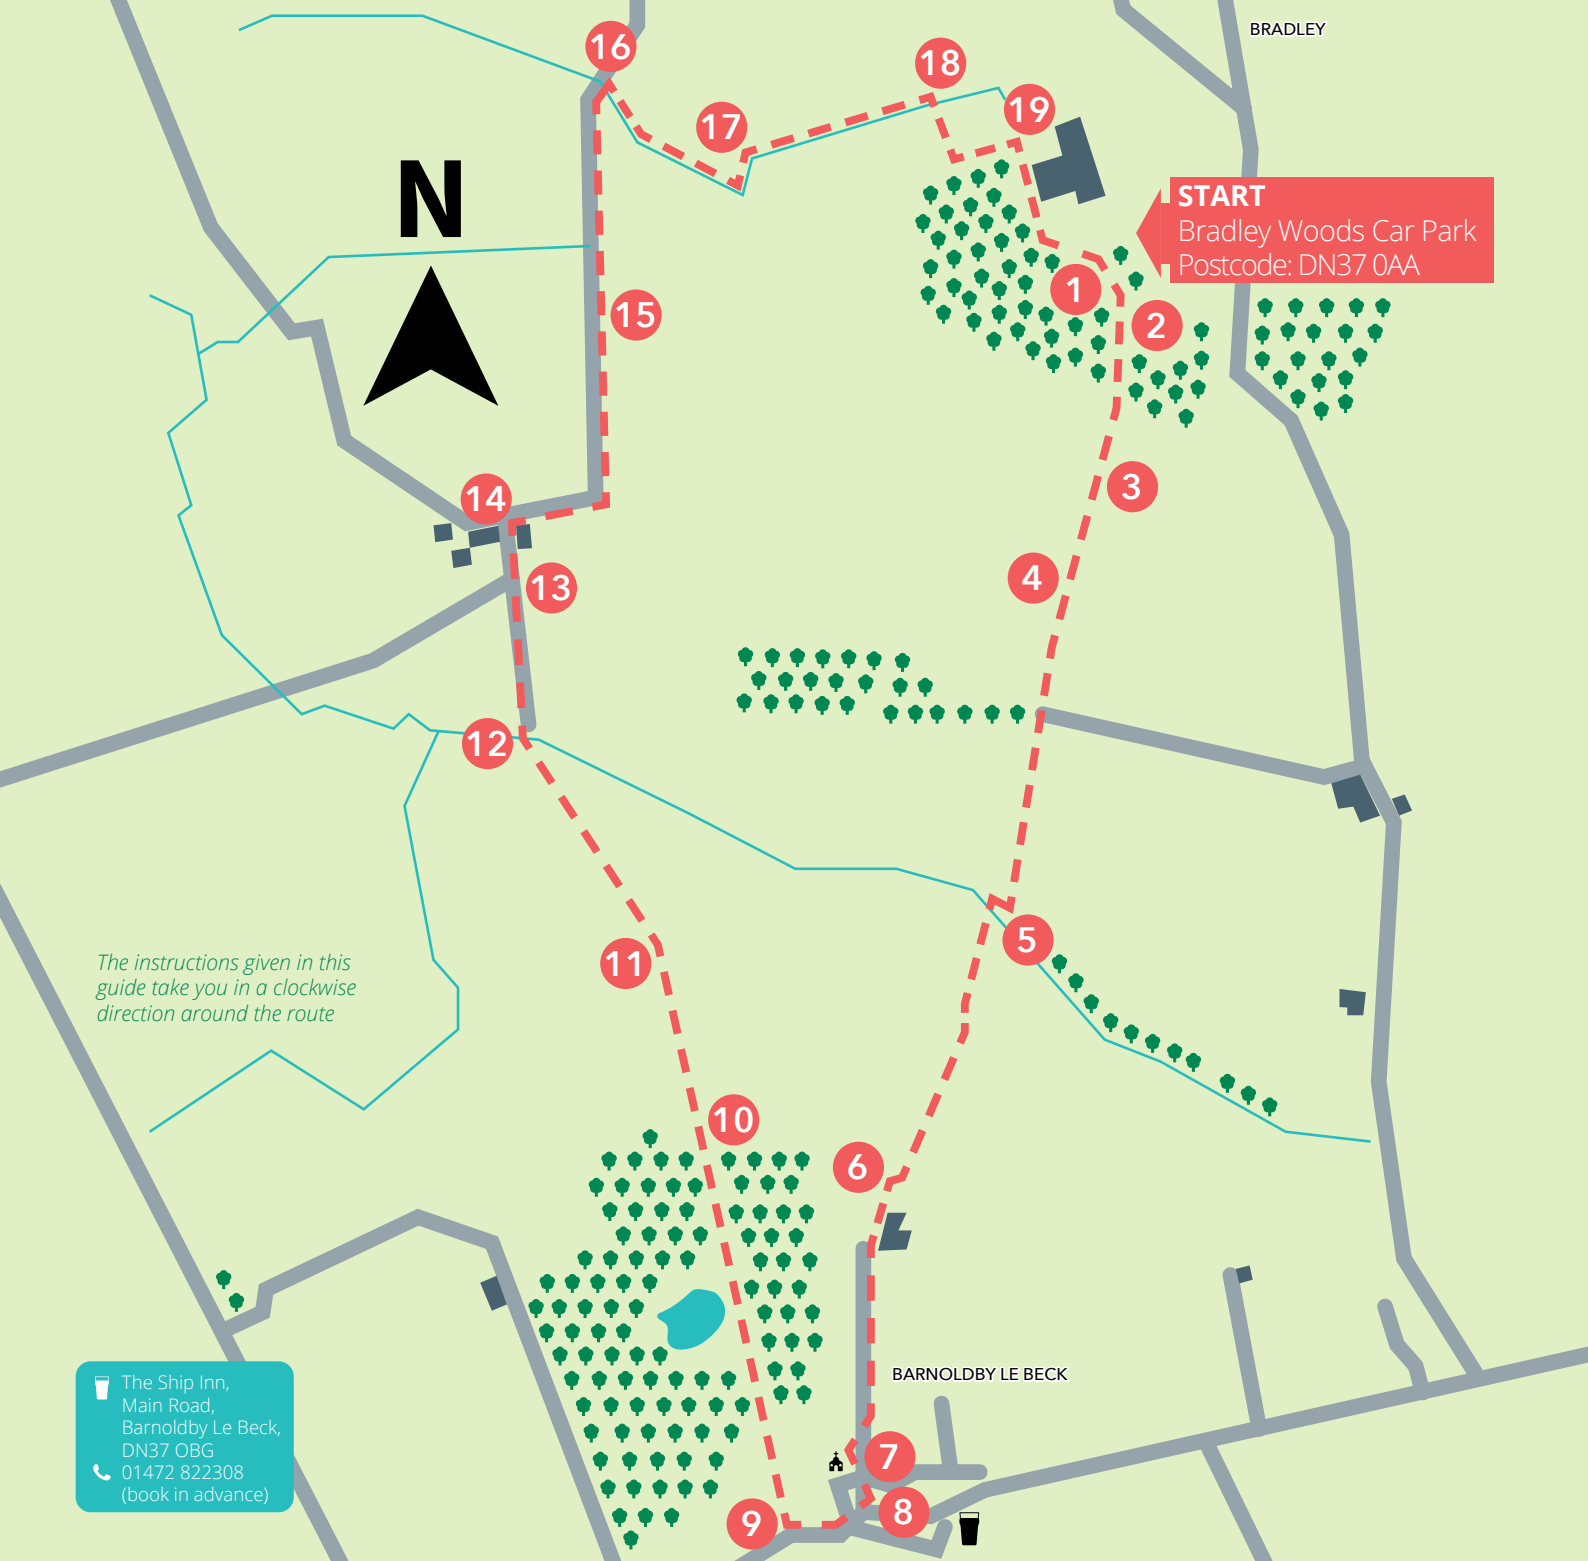

During the middle ages Bradley Woods and nearby Dixon Woods were favourite haunts for the Mayor of Grimsby and the Burgess where they would hunt for boar. At the time, the woods would have covered a much greater acreage than today and the noblemen would have raced up and down the 'rides' chasing boar.

The people of Bradley used to supply the boar for the Mayor's banquets and this is reflected in the coat of arms of Grimsby.

Roughly halfway around the walk, you'll come to the village of Barnoldby-le-Beck, passing St Helen's Church. Now a Grade I listed building, over the years the Norman structure has been significantly restored and renovated. Small parts of the original building still remain as do examples of medieval glass in the church windows.

Walkers can stop off at The Ship Inn for a drink and something to eat.

On leaving Barnoldby you head north along the network of footpaths and bridleways passing Laceby Manor Golf Course before heading back through the woods to complete your walk.
